"Man cannot discover new oceans unless he has the courage to lose sight of the shore."

~ Andre Gide

A Message From Ann Buller President And CEO, Centennial College

Change is something we encounter every day. Those with the courage to embrace it will have the opportunity to discover their passion and shape their community, their industry and the world.

When you choose Centennial, you choose to engage in an experience that goes beyond learning the skills and knowledge needed to get a job. You choose to learn about yourself, about our complex world and about the role and responsibility you have in making positive change.

Our Signature Learning Experience will challenge and reward you in ways very few college experiences can. All diploma students complete a course on global citizenship which helps them to gain a new perspective on themselves and the world around them. Over the past few years, numerous Centennial students have participated in Global Citizenship and Equity Learning Experiences in the Dominican Republic, Cuba, Jamaica, Kenya, Peru, Walpole Island and the Amazon. Whether they helped build a school or aided health care providers or marine biologists, the participants noticed profound changes within themselves. Changes that made them better people with a greater sense of what they had to offer their community, our country and the world.

Centennial is renowned for its exemplary teaching, innovative programming and extensive partnership building and for creating global citizens. We will give you the skills and knowledge you need for a successful career and an understanding of the world that will make you stand out to employers.

Pursue your Passion. Launch your Career

Welcome to Centennial

Centennial College is Ontario's first community college, established in 1966. In many ways, we remain at the forefront. Our innovative programs give our students the knowledge and insight to pursue their passions and be leaders in their fields.

Centennial graduates are ready to take on not just jobs, but careers. You will leave this college with the foundation to build success in the workplace and the community. We offer 250 full-time and part-time programs through eight schools:

Advancement

Business

Communications, Media and Design

Community and Health Studies

Continuing Education

Engineering Technology and Applied Science

Hospitality, Tourism and Culture

Transportation

Our 18,000 full-time and 20,000 part-time learners enjoy a highly supportive learning environment. The schools feature exemplary teachers, and exciting alliances with industry and academic partners. Our comprehensive education leads to certificates, diplomas or applied degrees that are well-regarded in your field of study. Centennial credentials will serve you well as you embark on your career.

We're also recognized as one of Canada's most diverse post-secondary institutions with almost 100 ethno-cultural groups represented and 80 languages spoken on campus. We invite you to learn about how Centennial's stimulating programs and settings can meet your personal, academic and career goals.

A Signature Learning Experience

The world is changing rapidly – are you changing with it? Our Signature Learning Experience (SLE) will help you discover the more socially and culturally aware citizen within yourself, to apply in life and the workforce.

The SLE includes a course entitled “Global Citizenship: From Social Analysis to Social Action.” You’ll also have the chance to create a portfolio where you document your growth and understanding of global citizenship, social justice, equity and inclusion. This will become a companion piece to your standard resumé, illustrating the complete range of your education. Think of the traits that are highly valued, as an employee and citizen. The SLE will help you to grasp the cultural and communications aspects of diversity.

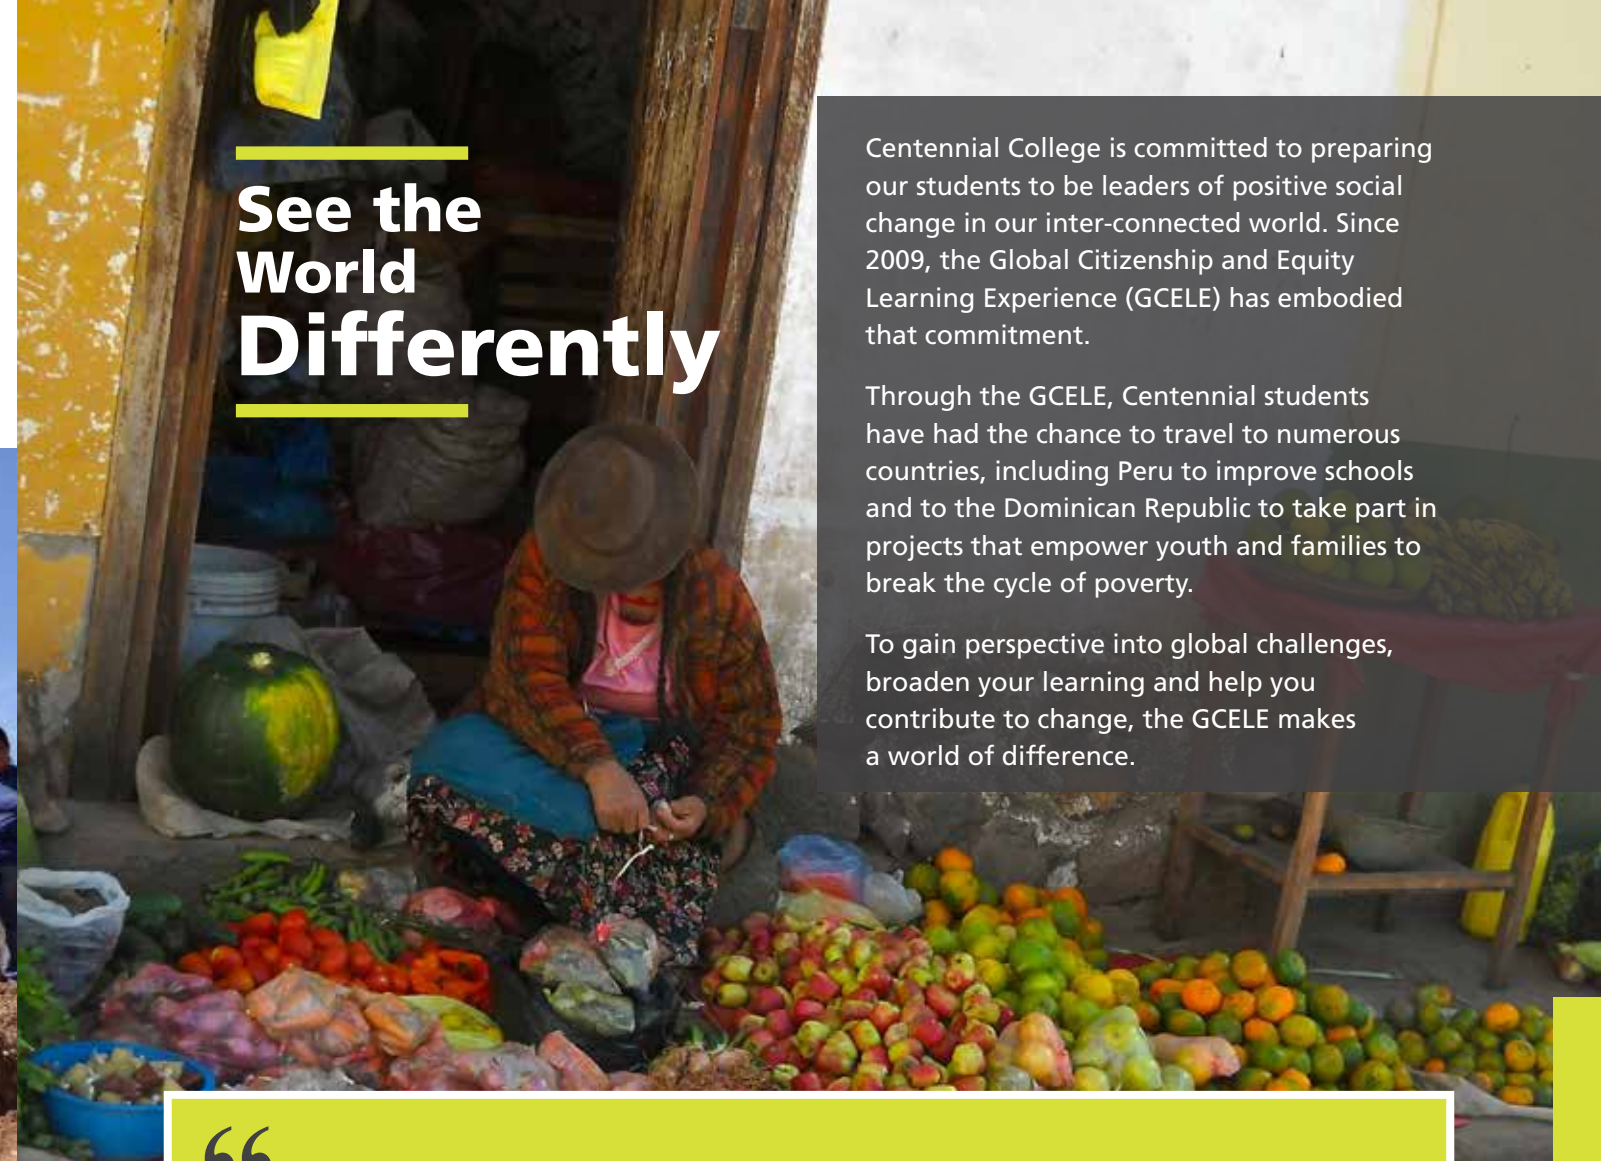

Increase your global consciousness. Enhance your leadership abilities. Collaborate with people of many backgrounds and beliefs. Take actions to drive progressive change. And improve your interpersonal, critical-thinking and problem-solving skills. Your SLE will distinguish you to employers and in the workforce, giving you a competitive edge as someone prepared for the challenges of today – and tomorrow.

See the World Differently

Centennial College is committed to preparing our students to be leaders of positive social change in our inter-connected world. Since 2009, the Global Citizenship and Equity Learning Experience (GCELE) has embodied that commitment.

Through the GCELE, Centennial students have had the chance to travel to numerous countries, including Peru to improve schools and to the Dominican Republic to take part in projects that empower youth and families to break the cycle of poverty.

To gain perspective into global challenges, broaden your learning and help you contribute to change, the GCELE makes a world of difference.

“To excel in life I truly believe we have to consistently nourish and surround ourselves with environments conducive to our growth...The vision of these GCELE trips, which gives students such as myself, the opportunity to travel to various regions of the planet, to practice stewardship, regarding global citizenship, is truly remarkable.”

Fostering the entrepreneurial Spirit

Would you like to work for a well-known and successful organization? Do you dream of a career that will let you connect with those around the world and help others? Or perhaps a fast-paced courtroom environment would better suit your disposition? Have you ever wanted to open your own business? At Centennial we know that strong Business skills are at the heart of every job.

Centennial's School of Business offers over 30 different dynamic programs to build your business skills and develop innovative thinking. Whether you want to study for one semester or three years, we can offer co-op placements, work-integrated learning placements, and multiple Degree partnerships. We offer opportunities that will get you the hands-on skills and accreditation that you need to build a successful career in an ever-changing world of business.

Business

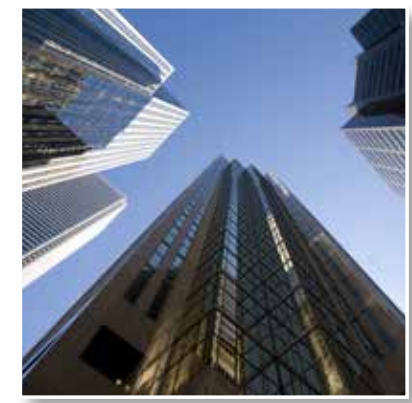

“The community at this college embraced me with open arms to a point where I feel at home. Even after I graduate, the bonds and relationships I’ve made here are those I’ll cherish forever.”

Vikranth Joseph | Business Administration › International Business

Champions in marketing

For over 30 years, Centennial’s marketing students have faced off with their peers throughout Ontario in a unique skills competition that mirrors real-world business challenges.

We’re proud that our students have received multiple awards at the Ontario Colleges’ Marketing Competition – a sign that they have the academic and employability skills needed to succeed.

A career with a creative Edge

At the School of Communications, Media and Design, we are much like you: creative thinkers. Our campus – the Story Arts Centre – lives up to its name. You'll find state-of-the-art production, broadcasting and digital facilities, where you can hone your skills, apply your imagination and tell your story.

You will learn from instructors who are currently working in the field, and who enrich the curriculum with the latest industry standards and practices. At this school, if you can think it, you can create it.

Communications Media and Design

“This program has allowed me to really and truly learn how to develop my skills as an artist and how to work with different people.”

Akeem Raphael | Music Industry Arts

On the danforth

For Torontonians who are looking for community, culture and lifestyle news – everything from local events to food to health – one of the most eclectic sources is On the Danforth.

Run by the students of Centennial College's Publishing – Book, Magazine and Electronic program, On the Danforth is published biannually and distributed all over Toronto's Danforth area. An online version (onthedanforth.ca) supplements these publications with current and engaging content. It's a prime example of how students in the School of Communications, Media and Design are ready to ply their crafts.

Change the course of Lives

Do you envision a career that will change lives? Our School of Community and Health Studies can make that a reality, whether it's nursing a patient to good health, teaching a child to read, protecting the population from harm, or helping someone lead a better life.

Our extensive laboratories and clinics give students hands-on experiences. Watch theory come to life as you put your learning to practice with the guidance of industry-experienced instructors. With our simulated environments, Centennial students can make the smooth transition from the classroom to the workplace.

Community and Health Studies

“Centennial College offers great learning opportunities, in Toronto or internationally. I found the staff supportive and continuously looking for ways to enhance the student’s learning experience.”

Carollyn San Jose | Bridging to University Nursing Degree graduate

Practice makes perfect

At Censation Esthetics, our students face the best possible test – actual paying customers. Under the careful supervision of our highly-qualified teaching staff, Centennial esthetician and massage therapy students perform a full range of treatments. Customers are pampered in modern facilities, using industry-standard equipment.

This creates an experience comparable to commercial spas at a fraction of the cost.

As one customer said: “The highly trained and talented students spoiled me with wonderful and relaxing facials, manicures and pedicures. Keep up the great work...your professionalism and talents are appreciated!”

Reimagining a better Future

We are in an era of dramatic change, where innovative technologies and approaches are driving the way we experience life. Among the professionals leading the way are graduates of SETAS – the School of Engineering Technology and Applied Science.

SETAS comprises three departments: Applied Biological and Environmental Sciences, Information and Communication Engineering Technology, and Advanced Manufacturing and Automation Technology. We offer over 20 nationally-accredited engineering technician/technology programs, among the most in Ontario.

Our programs take our students to the frontiers of advanced technology and entirely new career options. In fact, SETAS graduates are so well-trained that they're able to bypass the standard entry-level option and start immediately at intermediate-level positions.

Engineering Technology and Applied Science

Leading laboratories

In our well-equipped labs, students master the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in the marketplace. Some of the resources you'll use as part of your education include:

- Applied Electronics Laboratory
- Basic Electronics Laboratory
- Biomedical Laboratory
- Computer Engineering Laboratory
- Data Centre Laboratory
- Data Communications Laboratory
- Enterprise Networking Laboratories
- Network Operating Systems Laboratories
- PC Hardware Laboratory
- RF and Wireless Technology Laboratory

“I’m the type of person that wants to know how things work, and being able to control things, and being able to build and invent things, I wanted to know more how they work. And that’s what Centennial College provided me.”

Jeremy Clark | Electronic Engineering Technician

Oh, the places you'll Go!

Hospitality, Tourism and Culture

Do you enjoy the idea of travelling the world? Finding new restaurants? Experimenting in the kitchen? The excitement of new places and events? Why not turn your interests into a career?

At the School of Hospitality, Tourism and Culture, we see learning as a discovery. Just as every journey begins with a step, we believe in exploring, experimenting, and letting your curiosity lead the way.

Centennial prepares you for careers in any of five tourism-related sectors: Accommodation; Food and Beverage; Transportation; Travel Services; and Recreation and Entertainment. Our courses cover a full range of business practices in operations, marketing, human resources and finance, as applied to the entire hospitality and tourism field. You'll also gain work experience through a field placement, giving you a jump start as you embark on your career.

“The Tourism Management – Culture and Heritage Tourism program was absolutely phenomenal and enabled me to learn the insights of the tourism industry and its various segments of study.”

Viraj Shah | Tourism Management Culture and Heritage Tourism

Cooking school with an international flavour

To feed the demand for cooks and chefs trained in international cuisine, Centennial renovated our Culinary Arts Centre at the Progress Campus. The $3.5 million project has yielded two enormous professional kitchens and a bakeshop lab, totaling 7,600 square feet.

Through the Culinary Arts Centre, our graduates enjoy a unique perspective on food. First, the centre gives future food preparers a great appreciation for cuisine from Europe, the Mediterranean, the Middle East, South Asia and the Americas. Along with building practical skills, preparing this food is a wonderful introduction to our diverse cultures.

Get Your career in Motion

Want a career that will definitely keep you moving? If so, the School of Transportation is a great choice.

Our students train in one of Canada's largest transportation facilities. Industry professionals will lead you into hands-on experiences working on a variety of cars, trucks, motorcycles, aircraft and heavy-duty vehicles.

The School of Transportation has longstanding partnerships with companies such as General Motors, Ford, Toyota, Canadian Tire, Volvo, Freightliner, Honda and Air Canada. Our programs are supported and reviewed regularly by industry representatives. That support, combined with our skilled faculty and our state-of-the-art equipment, ensures students of high-quality learning experiences – and exposure to exciting opportunities in the transportation field.

Transportation

Earn while you learn

Learning by doing – that's the system of apprenticeship. We have over 3,000 apprentices in Centennial's automotive, truck and coach, and modified apprenticeship program. Apprenticeships run two - five years.

Whatever the trade, the combination of on-the-job training and related class studies at Centennial helps you prepare for a rewarding career.

“These industry vets went out of their way to ensure we understood the material inside and out, and they would always stick around until we got it. They didn't just teach us – they inspired us.”

Lifelong learning is Essential

Our School of Continuing Education works with industry, associations and professionals to ensure we're delivering the most up-to-date content. Many of our students want to augment their original education by pursuing a program or professional designation. Often, that gives them an edge when it comes to job searches and promotions – and our offerings deliver.

Just as important, we work with you. By keeping our eye on trends and areas of interest, our courses, seminars and workshops reflect the diverse and changing needs of our part-time student population. We also accommodate your schedule, with evening, weekend and online classes. So study what you want, when you want – and never stop learning and growing.

Continuing Education

“I found that the Centennial College Digital Publishing program was the right fit for me, making me a certified user of the programs upon completion.”

Dominique Jacobs | Digital Publishing Continuing Education

You pay only for the 8-month academic year, so avoid a 12-month lease. For information, visit centennialrez.ca, email centennial@stayrcc.com, or call 416-438-2216.

If you do choose to live off-campus, visit places4students.com for listings of accommodations.

Playing at Centennial

Centennial has many ways to stimulate you, in mind, body and spirit.

Check out our wide variety of intramural, recreation and instructional programs – everything from yoga to cricket.

Re-charge at our fabulous Athletic and Wellness Centre, featuring squash courts, an 80-metre indoor track, a climbing wall, a Wellness Treatment Centre, a cardio-fitness area, two aerobic studios and more.

Pamper yourself at the Student Association Spa Services at the Athletic and Wellness Centre. This full-service spa offers massage therapy, manicures and pedicures.

Interested in varsity athletics? Try out for our Colts men's and women's basketball, soccer or badminton teams. Or come out and cheer them on. Visit centennialcollege.ca/colts.

Your Student Association

The Centennial College Student Association Incorporated (CCSAI) represents all fee-paying students. The CCSAI operates student centres at the Progress, Ashtonbee and Morningside campuses, as well as the Story Arts Centre, and runs the Athletic and Wellness Centre. To learn how the association provides services and advocates on behalf of the student body at Centennial College, visit ccsai.ca.

Supporting Student Success

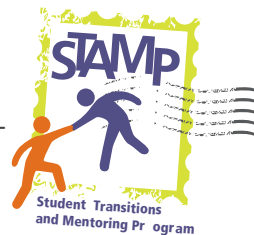

We want to give you all the support you need to do well at Centennial. In the classroom, that means instructors who are leaders in their fields, small classes, individual attention, engaging courses and state-of-the-art facilities. All of this complemented by a range of programs and services that aid your learning and motivate your development. By choosing Centennial, you'll have access to all the tools and resources required to succeed as a student – and beyond. Visit centennialcollege.ca/student-services to learn more.

Orientation

As you begin your Centennial journey, you'll have the chance to meet instructors, learn what to expect in your courses, find out about all the opportunities at college and meet new friends. We hold orientation the week before classes begin.

Peer Mentoring

To give you advice and direction right from the start, we can match up first-year students with a senior student.

Counselling

Our confidential counselling can help you manage issues such as stress, anxiety, adjusting to college, problems in relationships and any personal crisis. Whatever you need, we're here to help.

Student Advising Office

Your ideas about your education and future career can change. Our advisors are glad to talk to you to discuss your program options and guide you to the path that's right for you.

Student Relations Office

We're dedicated to making your experiences at Centennial College positive and memorable. The office can provide information and support around academic matters, social or behavioural concerns, conflict, harassment or discrimination. We also provide information on the Student LGBTQ Club and Multi-faith Room. Overall, we'll help you to navigate the college system, resolve complaints and understand your rights and responsibilities.

Centre for Students with Disabilities

Centennial is committed to providing the best possible education for all students. This includes meeting the needs of students who may require adjustments, accommodations or advocacy to succeed as a result of a disability. We help students with physical disabilities, impaired mobility, impaired vision or hearing, mental health conditions, other medical conditions and documented learning disabilities.

Our support ranges from arranging alternative assessments for college admission, to ensuring access to college facilities, to assistance in finding flexible ways to meet academic and classroom requirements. The services are free and confidential. Just contact us well in advance of classes to give us time to arrange for help.

Centre for Academic English

Do you need some help with the English skills that are key to unlocking success at college? This Centre provides free English tutoring and workshops to all full-time and part-time Centennial students at our four campuses. The tutors are professional teachers with certification from TESL Ontario or TESL Canada, who have years of experience teaching students from around the world. Support includes one-on-one tutoring, group conversation and pronunciation workshops and small group academic workshops.

Leadership Passport

Centennial wants to help you to become a leader in your career and your life. Part of that comes through the Leadership Passport co-curricular program. The program develops your leadership skills, while enhancing the career-focused training you get in your program of study. That happens through theoretical and practical learning that encompasses volunteerism, international educational experience, service learning and more.

You end up with a Distinction in Leadership on your college transcript, which demonstrates your skills to potential employers. The Leadership Passport is a great way to bring out the best in yourself.

Peer Tutoring

If you need help with course material, you can arrange to meet one of our peer tutors. These are other Centennial students of high academic standing, recommended by their departments. The tutors can work with you one-on-one or in small groups, up to four hours a week, to provide support and encouragement.

Libraries

Our libraries at each campus are a hub of student support. You'll find everything needed to meet your academic requirements – the right books and articles, audio/visual material and equipment, quiet study spaces, tutoring, help with research, and a chance to review coursework in preparation for exams.

Career Services

Wondering about how to land a career that matches your interests, values and skills? We provide valuable guidance through a team of career counsellors, employment advisors, pre-admission career advisors, co-op advisors and job developers.

Aboriginal Education and Services

As part of our overall commitment to students, Centennial College wants to enrich the Aboriginal student experience. Our aim is to increase the number of Aboriginal learners accessing and participating in post-secondary education and training. We're doing our part by developing specialized programs, offering apprenticeships and placements within desired fields in Aboriginal communities, providing help with job searches and strengthening community partnerships.

Centennial is already one of the most diverse colleges in Ontario. We believe that by working together, we can make a difference in the lives of Aboriginal students – so that they, in turn, can make a difference in their communities.

How to Apply

Ready for the next step? Visit www.ontariocolleges.ca to apply online, or call 1-888-892-2228. You can apply for up to three programs at Centennial College.

If you want to start in August or September 2015, you should get your application in before or on February 1, 2015.

If you can't, applications received after February 1, 2015, are considered on a first-come, first-served basis, if space is available.

Applications should be accompanied with the $95 application fee (credit card, certified cheque or money order). Direct payment or online banking is also available.

You can apply as early as October 2014 through www.ontariocolleges.ca

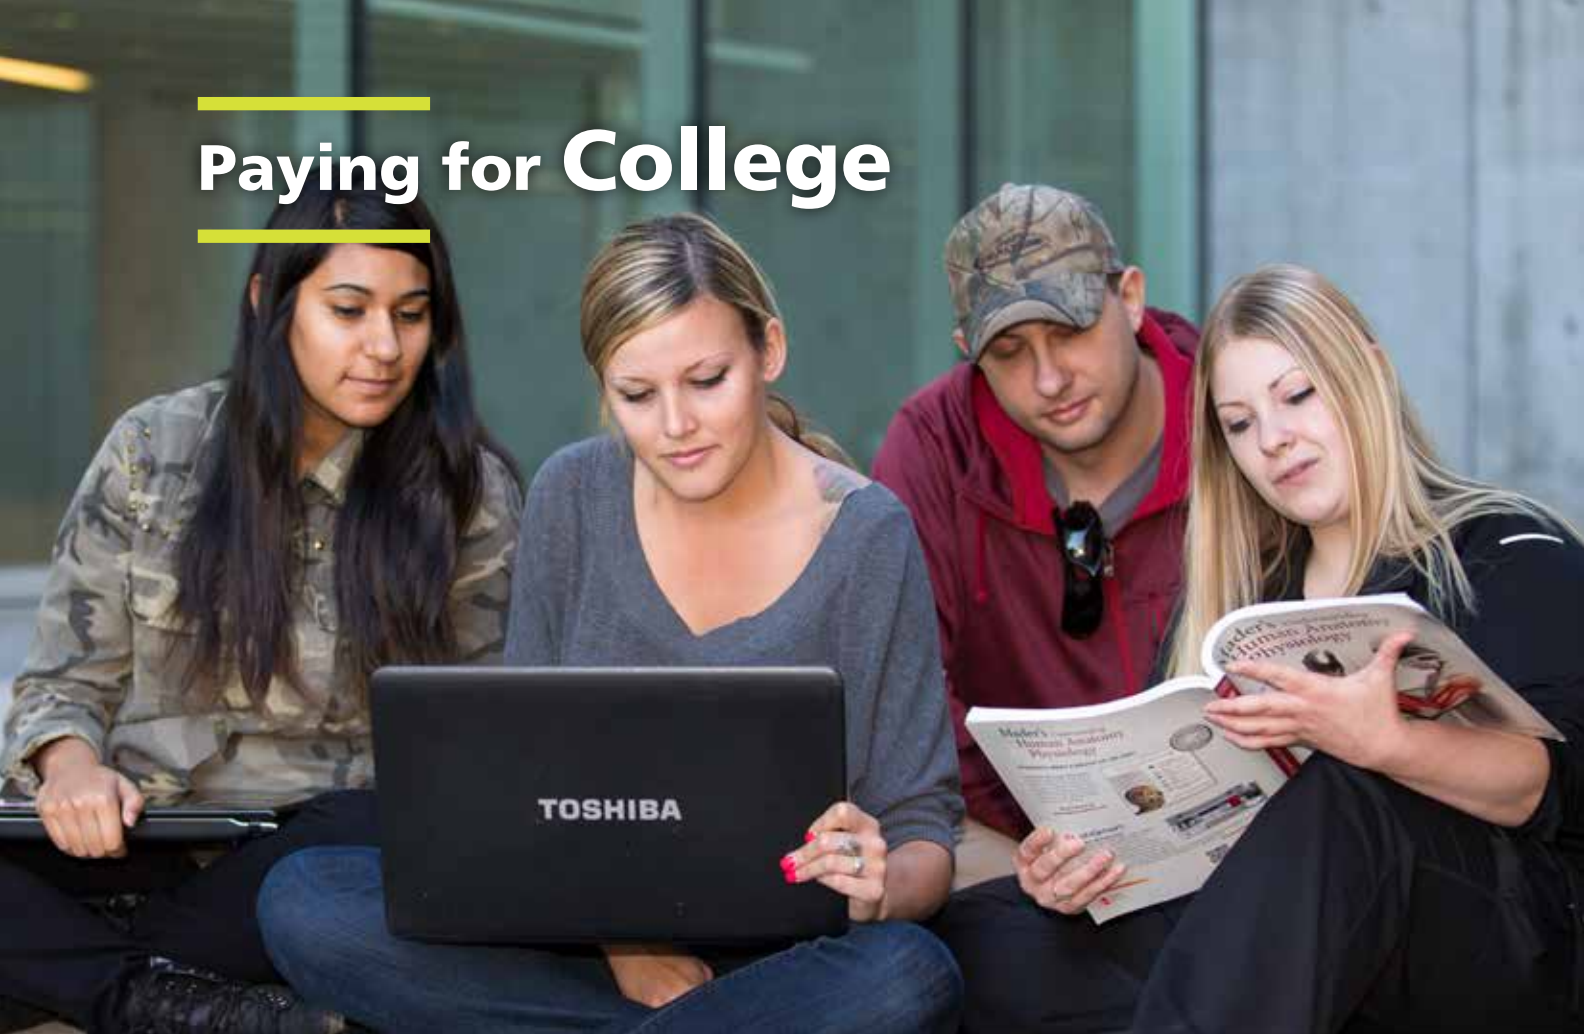

For programs starting in January 2016, we begin considering applications in June 2015.

If you've been out of school for awhile, Centennial has a place for you too. Our student population is very diverse, both in ages and life experiences.

▪ Mature students: If you're over 19 and have education or work experience, you're considered a mature applicant. Some of our programs finish in two years or less and are designed for people just like you. You can get credits for equivalent courses completed at an accredited college or university. You can also get credits through a Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition. That means a review of how past learning – e.g. work, volunteering, professional development – demonstrates skills and knowledge. Visit centennialcollege.ca/fasttrack or contact the Student Advising Office.

▪ Second Career: Second Career is a provincial initiative to assist those in need who have been laid off since January 2005. To check eligibility for Second Career, please call the Employment Ontario hotline at 1-800-387-5656 or Centennial's Employment Training Centre at 416-289-5123 or visit employmenttraining@centennialcollege.ca.

Paying for College

Your costs to attend Centennial College can vary, depending on factors like your program, and whether you live on campus.

Take advantage of the financial assistance available to invest in your potential. Depending on your financial situation and course load, you may qualify for OSAP (Ontario Student Assistance Plan), other loans, scholarships and/or bursaries.

Contact our Student Financial Aid Office, do your own research and speak to your guidance counselor to learn about other sources of funding. Centennial College remains committed to providing financial support to help you achieve your goals.

For more information visit centennialcollege.ca/admissions/financial-aid/

Program Admission Requirements

How Do You Choose?

Before you choose a program, learn more about your options by visiting Centennial College. Throughout the year, Centennial will host open houses, discovery days and workshops designed to answer your questions on our programs, admission requirements, financial aid, fees and much more.

For further information, please see the first page of this book or to register for a free Pre-Application Information Session, call the Liaison and Student Recruitment Office at 416-289-5325.

Admission Requirements for Centennial College Certificate and Diploma Programs

- Ontario Secondary School Diploma (OSSD) or equivalent or mature student status (19 years of age)
- Credits, courses and minimum grades to satisfy the academic requirements of specific programs
- Additional requirements as specified (e.g. portfolio, admission essay, information sessions, etc.)
- For most programs, English and mathematics academic requirements may be met by taking a 'skills assessment'
- Meeting minimum admission requirements does not guarantee admission to a program
