LONDON

CULINARY ARTS & BUSINESS

Bienvenue!

With over 120 years of teaching experience, Le Cordon Bleu is well-established as the global leader in culinary, wine and hospitality education. As we continuously adapt to meet the changing demands of the industry, our philosophy of achieving excellence remains the same.

Today, our international network comprises of more than 35 institutes in 20 countries with over 20,000 students graduating each year.

Le Cordon Bleu offers a wide range of Diploma, Bachelor and Masters programmes, including the finest education in food, beverage, hospitality and tourism management. The reputation of Le Cordon Bleu has endured by actively keeping our courses up-to-date and industry-relevant using innovative new technologies. Our academic programmes are constantly adapted to the future needs of hospitality services, particularly through our privileged partnerships with governments, universities, and specialist organisations.

Le Cordon Bleu has made a worldwide contribution to the conservation of the art of French living and French culture, by setting standards in both the culinary arts and the hospitality industry. In recent years, our activities have diversified into culinary publications, gourmet products and professional cooking equipment distribution, restaurants and even participating in television series and films.

We invite you to share our knowledge, vision, and passion for these dynamic, ever-changing industries.

About Le Cordon Bleu

- 1895 French journalist Marthe Distel starts a culinary magazine, La Cuisinière Cordon Bleu. The first class is taught at Le Cordon Bleu Paris in October.
- 1897 Le Cordon Bleu Paris welcomes its first Russian student.
- 1905 Le Cordon Bleu Paris welcomes its first Japanese student.
- 1927 The London Daily Mail newspaper describes a visit to Le Cordon Bleu Paris: "It's not unusual for as many as eight different nationalities to be represented in the classes".
- 1931 Rosemary Hume and Dione Lucas, who trained at Le Cordon Bleu Paris under the guidance of chef Henri-Paul Pellaprat, open L'Ecole du Petit Cordon Bleu in London. Four years later, they go on to open the restaurant Au Petit Cordon Bleu, also in London.
- 1942 Dione Lucas opens Le Cordon Bleu School and Restaurant in New York. She also authors the bestseller The Cordon Bleu Cook Book and becomes the first woman to have a televised cooking show.
- 1948 Le Cordon Bleu is accredited by the Pentagon for the professional training of young GI's after their tour of duty. As a former member of the OSS, Julia Child qualifies and enrolls at Le Cordon Bleu Paris.
- 1953 Le Cordon Bleu London creates several dishes, which are served to foreign dignitaries at the coronation luncheon of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. Among them is the now renowned Coronation Chicken.
- 1954 The success of the Hollywood movie Sabrina, directed by Billy Wilder, contributes to the growing reputation of Le Cordon Bleu.
- 1984 The Cointreau family, descendants of the founding families of Remy Martin and Cointreau liqueur, takes over the presidency of Le Cordon Bleu Paris.
- 1991 Le Cordon Bleu Japan opens in Tokyo and later in Kobe. It is known as "Little France in Japan". Le Cordon Bleu Paris and Le Cordon Bleu London join forces to become a united brand.
- 1995 Le Cordon Bleu Paris celebrates its 100th anniversary as an ambassador of the culinary arts. For the first time ever, the Chinese authorities of the Shanghai district send chefs abroad for training at Le Cordon Bleu Paris.
- 1996 Le Cordon Bleu opens in Sydney following the request of New South Wales Government. Soon after, Le Cordon Bleu Adelaide launches a Degree in Restaurant & Hospitality Management.
- 2000 - 2006 Le Cordon Bleu opens in Korea, Mexico and in Peru becoming the first culinary institute in the country. A partnership is launched in Thailand with Dusit International.
- 2009 Le Cordon Bleu institutes worldwide participate in the launch of the movie Julie and Julia.
- 2011 Le Cordon Bleu Madrid opens in partnership with Francisco de Vitoria University.
- 2012 Inauguration of the new Le Cordon Bleu London building in Bloomsbury. Le Cordon Bleu opens its doors in New Zealand as well as in Malaysia in partnership with Sunway University.

Student experience

Student assistants

As part of their curriculum, students* will be offered the opportunity to assist our chefs during demonstrations, culinary or wine events and festivals we are participating in. This experience will enable them to see behind the scenes and gain a little more insight into the life of a professional chef.

Le Petit Journal

Each month, Le Cordon Bleu London produces Le Petit Journal, a student-specific newsletter which is designed to help students make the most of their time in London. The newsletter showcases news and school highlights, as well as sharing insider tips on the latest food trends across the capital.

Library

Students have access to a range of culinary, hospitality, wine and management books, which are regularly updated to reflect the changing needs of the industry.

Guest chef demonstrations and culinary conferences

In order to enrich our students' learning, we regularly host fascinating culinary conferences with key players in the food industry and invite esteemed experts who have shaped the culinary scene in the UK and internationally. See lcbi.eu/events for more information.

Student events

Students have the opportunity to participate in an array of events at the school. From the Student Social Event, where they are able to meet, discuss and taste produce from different suppliers, to the Superior student events such as the World Cuisine Degustation and Afternoon Tea, where they can demonstrate their culinary expertise.

Rooftop garden

Our campus has a rooftop garden where herbs are grown to be used in classes, and bees are kept for honey production. We also have an Urban Cultivator in which we grow healthy and organic herbs, and microgreens.

Café Le Cordon Bleu

Located on our campus and acting as a 'window' into the world of Le Cordon Bleu London, our Café showcases a range of the finest French pâtisseries, viennoiseries, gourmet sandwiches, hot dishes and chef's specials available in the capital. Our products are crafted daily in the school's dedicated bakery kitchen and can be enjoyed with one of our specially selected wines or craft beers, and are a reflection of the different types of techniques taught to our students.

Le Cordon Bleu and the industry

Le Cordon Bleu London facilitates students' career goals through a variety of methods.

The institute works closely with the industry and fosters relationships with potential and current employers who can help graduates shape their careers.

Working with the industry

Le Cordon Bleu London regularly organises industry focus group meetings to assess trends and needs within the food and beverages businesses ensuring our programmes are up to date. In addition, the institute invites leading chefs and experts to be external assessors and guest speakers.

Preparing students

Students within the superior level of the Culinary Arts Diplomas will receive guidance and support before applying for internships or jobs with specific workshops and the ability to network with industry professionals.

Careers fairs

Le Cordon Bleu London hosts career events where a variety of high profile companies within the culinary and hospitality sector from international luxury hotel groups, Michelin starred restaurants, food and wine retail, catering businesses and recruitment agencies are invited to interact with the students.

There are currently a variety of career and business opportunities in high quality hospitality and food/wine related business enterprises available to Le Cordon Bleu graduates with professional qualifications. By better preparing students for informed decision-making in a fast-paced business environment, Le Cordon Bleu ensures graduates have a clear advantage in the job market.

Internship Pathway

Our internship programme is a three-month structured work-based learning programme that has been designed to provide students with the experience of working in a professional workplace.

Preceding the internship, students will attend classroom-based careers education courses and field trips focused on career development, enabling them to put into practice the skills and knowledge which they have learnt during their Culinary Arts and Wine Diplomas.

The internships are facilitated with high-end establishments across a variety of hotels, restaurants and food and wine businesses in London or other international locations. Depending on the nationality and based on preferences, the internship can be arranged in the student's home country or any location (subject to availability) in which the student is able to secure a work permit.

Core units:

- CV and cover letter workshops
- Mentor and feedback sessions
- Interview skills and preparation
- Field trips to hotels, restaurants, small food and wine business
- Internship journal and final report

Core objectives:

- Apply theoretical situations to real life work practices and critically analyse the work flow
- Assess their own skill set in practical situations and evaluate the scope for improvement
- Evaluate operational procedures in accordance with best industry practices
- Communicate at a professional level

Internship Pathway – Integrated programmes

"During my time on the Internship Pathway I had the chance to work in all of the different sections of The Fat Duck kitchen and I also got to work in two other restaurants within the group. I definitely feel much more confident about working in a professional kitchen as now I can see that the standards to which we were trained at Le Cordon Bleu London are high enough for even the best restaurants in the industry. I would definitely recommend the Internship Pathway to those who, like myself prior to the programme, do not have any professional kitchen experience or networks within the industry. The best part of the process is that Le Cordon Bleu does the initial talks with the place where you want to work, which makes it a lot easier for when you go for your interview."

- Adel Gumerov, Grand Diplôme® with Culinary Management – Internship Pathway alumnus

"The interns sent to us via Le Cordon Bleu are always willing to learn, hone their skills and assist our existing team here in Bray. We ensure they're involved in all aspects of production and service to get a true experience of the culture here at The Fat Duck and they have proved passionate, engaged and enthusiastic."

Practical information

UK Visas and Immigration

Tier 4 Sponsor Licence

The Home Office has registered Le Cordon Bleu London as a Tier 4 Sponsor, which authorises our sponsorship of international students for a Tier 4 Visa.

Accreditation and Educational Oversight

Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA)

Le Cordon Bleu London is subject to educational oversight by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) under the UK Visas and Immigration's Tier 4 sponsorship requirements.

British Accreditation Council

Le Cordon Bleu London has been accredited by the British Accreditation Council for Independent Further and Higher Education since 2008. BAC accreditation is recognised the world over by students, agents and government officials as the clearest mark of educational quality in the private sector, and is recognised by the UK Visas & Immigration as a qualifying requirement for institutions wishing to enrol students on Short-Term Study Visas.

NCFE

Le Cordon Bleu certificates and Diplomas are accredited as "Customised Qualifications" by national awarding organisation NCFE. These bespoke qualifications are unique to Le Cordon Bleu and do not sit on a national framework. NCFE accreditation ensures that the qualifications have measurable learning outcomes benchmarked against the Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) level descriptors, and gives assurance that the content of our qualifications are of a high standard, meeting the rigorous quality assurance requirements of a national awarding organisation.

Self-directed study

Programmes at Le Cordon Bleu London include an amount of self-directed study. This is the amount of time students should reasonably expect to be putting in during the course to prepare for classes, complete assignments and read around the subject, not under the immediate guidance or supervision of a lecturer.

Visit us

Book a Tour

We invite you to book a tour of our institute to observe our unique learning environment and state-of-the-art facilities. You will be personally accompanied by a member of our team, who will be available to discuss all matters relating to your educational opportunities and application.
