University of Bristol

Follow your path to the University of Bristol, one of the UK's leading academic institutions. This elite university has been at the forefront of British higher education for over 100 years.

Bristol: the University

The University of Bristol is one of Britain's traditional research-intensive Russell Group universities. As a Bristol student, you will benefit from research-inspired teaching, world-class facilities and a community of inquisitive minds from across the globe. It is consistently ranked among the country's best, so you will graduate with a degree that's widely respected. In fact, the University's graduates are in high demand, with employers recognising the enormous value of a degree from the University of Bristol.

Bristol: the city

With a large community of students and young people, as well as a range of bars, restaurants, shops and cafés for you to discover, Bristol is a great place to live and study. In 2018, the National Geographic Traveller ranked Bristol number 11 on its 'Cool List'. Bristol is also one of the most green-conscious cities in the country. It has varied sustainability and environmental initiatives, which helped it become the first UK city to receive the European Green Capital Award in 2015.

International Foundation Programme

To gain entry to an undergraduate degree at the University of Bristol, you can take the University delivered International Foundation Programme on campus, and apply through Kaplan Pathways.

What is the International Foundation Programme?

The International Foundation Programme helps you to prepare for an undergraduate degree at the University of Bristol, by developing your academic and language skills to meet degree entry requirements. If you pass at the required level, you're guaranteed entry to the University of Bristol. If you have a higher level of English (UKVI IELTS 7.0 overall with at least 6.0 in writing and 5.5 in speaking, listening and reading), you may be eligible for the International Foundation Programme Plus.

Where is it based?

The programme is delivered by the University of Bristol, with many classes taking place at the Centre for Academic Language and Development. The Centre is part of the University, and is used by degree students as well as foundation students, so you'll experience university life from your first day. You will be taught by expert teachers who understand the challenges international students face, and who will be there to support you on your path to university.

Which subjects are available?

The International Foundation Programme has three tailored pathway options, depending on your degree subject. You can start in September 2020 to progress to university in September 2021.

Foundation subject area	English language entry requirement	Fees
Arts and Humanities	Minimum UKVI IELTS 6.0 (at least 5.5 in writing and 5.0 in all other skills)	£20,100
Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics	Minimum UKVI IELTS 5.5 (at least 5.0 in writing and 4.5 in all other skills)	£20,950
Social Sciences and Law	Minimum UKVI IELTS 5.5 (at least 5.0 in all skills)	£20,100

Note: some degree subjects may require a higher IELTS score

Your degree options

The International Foundation Programme will help you gain entry to the first year of one of these bachelor's degrees at the University of Bristol. Browse the listings to find the degree subject that's right for you.
