TWO-YEAR IMPROVEMENT

- Coming off a 20-31 (.392) campaign in 2017, the Braves completed the 2018 season with a 32-19 (.627) overall record and followed with a 31-19 (.620) campaign in 2019.
- Bradley's 235 percentage-points improvement ranked ninth nationally in 2018.
- Bradley's .624 winning percentage the last two full seasons is Bradley's best in consecutive seasons since the 1993 (40-16) and 1994 (35-26) Braves combined for a .641 winning percentage.
- The Braves were coming off consecutive 30-win seasons for the first since 1995 (30-27) and 1996 (40-22) before the shortened 2020 campaign, during which Bradley (4-6) played just 10 games.

VALLEY WINS

- Bradley has won at least 11 Missouri Valley Conference games three times in the last four league seasons: 11-9 in 2016, 11-10 in 2018 and 11-10 in 2019.
- With back-to-back 11-10 Valley seasons, Bradley has posted winning league records in consecutive seasons for the first time since the 1986 and 1987 squads both finished 11-9 in The Valley.

FLIPPING HOME SCRIPT

- In the six seasons from 2014-20, Bradley played 227 of its 320 (70.9 percent) total games away from home.
- During this unusual 2021 season, however, Bradley will not play any non-conference games away from home.
- As a result, Bradley is planning to play 22 of its 34 (.647) scheduled regular-season games at Dozer Park, beginning with its delayed season-opener March 30 against SIU Edwardsville.
- Bradley has not played more than 20 games at home since 2011 (8-13) and as many as 22 home games since 2004 (12-12).
- The Braves have not played more than half of their games at home since 1989 (30-of-57, .526) and the percentage of games scheduled at Dozer Park is Bradley's greatest percentage of home games (.647) in a season since 1938 (13-of-17, .765).

BOLT PROVIDES JOLT

- Fifth-year senior OF Dan Bolt has received plenty of preseason adulation, becoming the first preseason All-American (Collegiate Baseball 3rd Team) in program history, as well as the program's first preseason Valley Player of the Year by several college baseball media outlets.
- During his breakout junior season in 2019, Bolt's 1.048 season OPS was Bradley's best since current New York Yankees OF Mike Tauchman posted a 1.110 during his 2013 Joe Carter MVC Player-of-the-Year season.
- Bolt backed up his 2019 breakthrough by swatting seven home runs with 15 RBIs during Bradley's truncated, 10-game 2020 season.
- Going back to the middle game of the series against Southern Illinois April 13, 2019, Bolt has banged out 15 home runs with 34 RBIs in his last 30 games, while sporting a 1.345 OPS.

ROOKIES UP THE MIDDLE

- Bradley enters the season with a plethora of new faces up the middle.
- A four-year starter at shortstop, Luke Shadid had started 151 of Bradley's 161 games from 2017-20, while brother Andy Shadid started 200 games in center field from 2016-19.
- Freshman Ryan Vogel started nine of Bradley's 10 games during the abbreviated 2020 campaign and remains classified as a freshman during this 2021 season.
- Following the 2019 graduations of Andy Shadid, along with veteran second basemen Christian Dominguez and Nick McMurray, Bradley is expected to open the 2021 season by starting newcomers at shortstop and second base with re-freshman Vogel in center field.
