Ironwood, your pathway to the University of Adelaide

If your goal is to gain a master's degree at the University of Adelaide, studying at Ironwood Institute is an affordable and accessible way to achieve it. Ironwood has an official collaboration with the University of Adelaide that provides a clear pathway into a master's degree.

Ironwood's AMP80215 Graduate Diploma of Agribusiness (CRICOS 090828K) is an Australian nationally accredited and internationally recognised qualification which offers a pathway into the Master of Global Food and Agricultural Business at the University of Adelaide.

Benefits of packaged courses

Single visa

You can apply for packaged offer letters, CoEs and a single student visa from overseas for the entire duration of both programs.

Post-Study Work Rights

You are eligible for all standard benefits of a university graduate, including post-study work rights in Australia.

Vocational and University skillset

You benefit from Ironwood's vocational experience and the University's higher education learning, combining applied and theoretical knowledge with practical skills.

Better prepared for the higher education environment

Heading into an Australian university straight from overseas can be challenging. Ironwood provides smaller class sizes and individual academic support to build a foundation for your university degree.

Pathways don't necessarily mean taking the 'long' way

Ironwood pathways will allow you to complete your master's degree in a similar time frame as you would do by directly studying the entire program with the University.

Two qualifications

You graduate with two qualifications (graduate diploma and master's degree).

Affordable fees

With Ironwood and the University of Adelaide packaging you can achieve your master's degree dream at an affordable fee.
